

NATION WATCHES ELECTIONS OVER THE U. S. TODAY

Five Governors to Be Elected — Prohibition a Feature.

BULLETIN.
By Associated Press Leased Wire
Boston, Mass., Nov. 4.—The first town in the state to report the vote for governor. The vote there was: Coolidge (republican) 229; Long (democrat) 15.
Last year's vote was Coolidge (republican) 136; Long (democrat) 49.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Ill., Nov. 4.—Delegates to the fifth state constitutional convention today were voted for in Illinois, with additional proposals to instruct delegates regarding the wishes of the people as to including in the prospective constitution a provision for the initiative and referendum and authorizing municipalities to acquire utilities.

MANY ELECTIONS TODAY.
By Associated Press Leased Wire
New York, Nov. 4.—Elections in five states went to the polls today to ballot for governors, while election of lesser officials and decisions on constitutional questions faced the voters of several other states. Governors are being elected in Kentucky, Maryland, Massachusetts, Mississippi and New Jersey.

Watch Ohio Vote.
The elections in Ohio are being watched with interest by "wet" and "dry" advocates as there, for the first time in any state, a popular vote is being taken on the eighteenth amendment to the constitution. This is being accomplished by a referendum on the legislature's action in ratifying the amendment. Ohio is taking a referendum vote on the prohibition enforcement act adopted by the legislature and is voting on two proposed constitutional amendments touching on prohibition.
Kentucky, Massachusetts, Maryland, New Jersey, Virginia and New York are electing legislators. Constitutional questions confront the voters in Illinois, Nebraska and Texas. Illinois and Nebraska are electing delegates to constitutional conventions, while Texas is passing on a call for a constitutional convention and on six proposed constitutional amendments. There are no elections in the far west.

WOULD MAKE STATE WET.
By Associated Press Leased Wire
Trenton, N. J., Nov. 4.—The chief issue in the New Jersey elections today, at which a governor and state legislature will be chosen, was prohibition.
State Senator Edward I. Edwards, democratic candidate for governor, in his campaign speeches declared he favored a "liberal" enforcement of the prohibition amendment, and that if elected, he would use all the legal machinery at his command to make the state wet.

Newton A. K. Bugbe, state comptroller, the republican gubernatorial nominee, who in his speeches said the question was a federal and not a state issue, was supported by the prohibition forces.
Another question that aroused wide interest was the woman suffrage amendment—the republicans favoring submitting it to the legislature for adoption or rejection; while the democrats called for immediate ratification.

ROOSEVELT HAS CONTENT.
By Associated Press Leased Wire
New York, Nov. 4.—Uncertainty as to the "woman vote" had candidates of all parties on the anxious seat when the polls opened at 6 o'clock this morning for the New York state elections of legislators, supreme court justices and lesser city officials.
With more than 350,000 women registered in New York City alone, or one-third of the total registration, and with similarly heavy woman registrations reported throughout the state, the women held the balance of power.
One of the most interesting fights in the state was centered in Oswego county where Miss Marion Dickerman, a school teacher, who served overseas with the Y. M. C. A., was attempting to unseat Speaker Thaddeus Sweet of the assembly.

In Nassau county, Lieut. Col. Theodore Roosevelt's contest with Private Elias Raff, a tailor's son, for the second assembly district seat, was the most interesting feature.

OHIO VOTES ON BOOZE.
By Associated Press Leased Wire
Columbus, Ohio, Nov. 4.—Ohio voters today will express their sentiment on national prohibition. This will be done indirectly by voting upon the action of the state legislature in ratifying the federal prohibition amendment. Ohio is the first state in the union where the federal proposition has been placed directly before the voters and both wet and dry leaders are watching the result with keen interest.
State-wide prohibition also is again before the voters, on a question of repealing the prohibition amendment adopted a year ago by a majority of more than 25,000.

COAL FOR DIXON IS CONFISCATED

The effects of the strike of coal miners throughout the country has already been felt in Dixon and as the strike continues, will undoubtedly become more serious here. Yesterday no less than a dozen carloads of coal consigned for local consumption was confiscated upon order from the United States Railway administration.
Agent Fiala of the Northwestern received instructions not to deliver any shipments of coal but hold the loaded cars until orders are received as to their disposition. The Sandusky Cement plant receives several cars of slack coal almost daily but these shipments have already been cut off, some of the fuel being confiscated before coming to the local yards.

ROBBERS RIFLE U. S. MAIL SACK AT FORRESTON

Money orders, valuable letters and other loot was taken when a U. S. mail pouch was broken into as the pouch lay in the Illinois Central baggage room at Forreston Saturday evening. The mail bag was cut open by the thieves and the letters and other contents were taken from the sack. A lock box at the station, which contained money orders, was also pried open and the contents stolen. Following the theft Special Agent Briggs, of Freeport, made an investigation and found many of the opened letters scattered about a gravel car just north of Forreston. Two strangers were seen loitering around the station Saturday afternoon and early in the evening and suspicion is directed toward them. It is not known just how much was taken by the thieves.

NEW FAIR PRICE LIST GIVES FAIR PROFIT MARGINS

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Ill., Nov. 4.—Three-fourths of a cent a pound on flour in original 35 or 196 pound packages, 6 cents a pound on lard, 7 cents a pound on butter and 7 cents a dozen on eggs are the maximum margins of profit retailers should charge above prevailing wholesale prices, according to the first "fair price" list promulgated by the Chicago fair price committee of fifteen retail grocers, announced today. If Major Sprague, head of the Chicago "fair price" food commission approves the prices, it was stated, they will go into effect immediately, and other lists issued from time to time would govern prices here.

Their advance agent states that little Chester has contracted a severe cold and could not be counted upon to attend, however, if possible he will also accompany the famed parents.
This is but one of the number of features to be provided at the great indoor carnival Thursday evening at the Elks' club. The decorators will arrive tomorrow morning with their trunks full of decorations and begin the work of transformation in the club rooms. Other features are to be announced later.

FORMER DIXON YOUTH PASSED AWAY FRIDAY

John F. Schnellbach is Called — Burial at Roseville.

Word has been received here of the death of John Francis Schnellbach, a former resident of Dixon and well known here. He passed away Friday at Cedar Rapids, Iowa, where he had gone for treatment. Funeral services were held Monday from the home of his wife's parents at Roseville, Ill., with burial in the cemetery at that place. The many Dixon friends join in extending their sympathy to the bereaved ones at this time.

John Francis Schnellbach was born in Dixon, July 7, 1888, and grew to young manhood in this city. He attended the Dixon public schools and was a graduate of the south side high school. Following his graduation he was for a short time, employed in the chemistry department at the Sandusky Cement plant east of the city. In the fall of 1909, Mr. Schnellbach moved to Champaign, Ill., where he attended the state university, specializing in the studies of civil and municipal engineering, graduating with high honors in 1913.

For a long time he was associated as assistant engineer in the office of the Illinois state waterway survey. On December 30, 1915, he was united in marriage to Miss Phoebe Caroline Tucker of Roseville, Ill., a classmate acquaintance and a graduate of his class at the state university. The young couple took up their residence at Champaign. Through hard work and constant study the young man contracted diabetes, which caused his death.

Besides his wife he leaves to mourn his loss, his mother, Ella Schnellbach, and sister, Mrs. George B. Seybert, residing in Rockford. A second sister, Mrs. Howard A. Stackpole, of Chicago and his father, J. V. Schnellbach, who recently moved away from Dixon, also survive.

Don't Name the Kids, It's Old Stuff, Just Number Them—Reds

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Stockholm, Oct. 15.—(Delayed)—Leaders of Russia's soviet government have banned the giving of christian names to children, it is reported, because they are considered "reminiscent of the reactionary system." It is expected an order will be issued soon forbidding their use. Numbers are to be substituted. These three children of a family named Petkoff may in future be known as "Petkoff one, two and three" respectively.

WORK PANACEA FOR TROUBLES OF THE WORLD

Strasbourg, Alsace, Nov. 4.—The solution of the many problems of the world is now facing may be summarized in the single word "work." Premier Clemenceau declared in his keynote for the government party in the parliamentary elections campaign, delivered here today.

The speech also was his farewell message on the eve of the retirement from political life which he contemplates. His address, he declared, was not a message meant for France alone, but was an appeal to the entire world to renew its labors as they had been performed before the war and produce for the world's needs.

STERLING DRUNK IS FINED $10 IN DIXON

Joe Meakum, arrested about noon yesterday for being intoxicated, was fined $10 and costs last evening by Justice Henneken. Joe had a bottle almost full of chloroform liquid when arrested, but after he had sobered up he told the police that this he used for his rheumatism. # REDS CLAIM THAT YUDENITCH ARMY IS SURROUNDED

No Confirmation of Claim Has Been Received in London.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
London, Nov. 4.—A claim that the northwestern Russian army of Gen. Yudenitch, which has been attacking Petrograd, has been surrounded by the bolsheviks is made in a soviet government wireless dispatch from Moscow dated today.

The claim to have effected an encirclement of the northwestern Russian army is presumably based upon the successes of the bolsheviks against the Petrograd-Luga-Pskov railway, by which the southward railroad communications of Gen. Yudenitch with his Baltic sea base are cut. The capture of Luga and Pskov and a comparatively short advance to the southern end of Lake Peipus, a considerable body of water reaching from the vicinity of Pskov to within thirty miles of the Gulf of Finland, would prove an absolute bar to a retreat southward by Gen. Yudenitch.

Nothing has, however, been received to indicate that the gap between Lake Peipus and the Gulf of Finland has been closed or even that operations threatening Gen. Yudenitch's communications in this region were in progress.

FINNS DENY AID.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Helsinki, Finland, Nov. 4.—The Finnish government informed Gen. Yudenitch today that it was unable to co-operate with him for the deliverance of Petrograd. (This is the Finnish reply to the appeal of the northwestern Russian government for assistance coupled with a recognition of the independence of Finland.)

VANITY AND LACK OF CHILDREN ARE DIVORCE CAUSES

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Nov. 4.—Happiness of man and woman is only a secondary affair in marriage, the prime purpose of which is to produce robust children. Prof. William J. Durant, of Columbia University said in a lecture at the Sinai Social Center here last night. "Where there are no children there is no marriage," he added.

Free love is impossible the professor said, because conquests of a man are praised by other men, "but if a woman has had one free love affair she is held in ridicule and belittled by her associates."
"Most men now marry after they have become incapable of love," the professor continued, "and then comes your divorce."

"Courts say that divorcees are due to cruelty, drunkenness and half a dozen other things, but they are all wrong. The three fundamental reasons for divorce are:
"1. The natural vanity of both sexes.
"2. Psychological incompatibility.
"3. Lack of children."

SHERMAN SLAMS LABOR CONGRESS

BULLETIN.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Nov. 4.—Without debate the senate today voted down a motion by Republican Leader Lodge to strike from the peace treaty the provision giving German rights in Shantung to Japan.

The vote, 41 to 26, revealed virtually the same line-up as in the senate's previous refusal to amend the Shantung provision.

The senate then began discussion of a motion of Senator Borah, republican, Idaho, to strike out article 10 of the league of nations covenant. It was the purpose of the leaders if possible to clear away all other proposed amendments today.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Nov. 4.—Vice President Marshall tried a little peace treaty speeding of his own today in the senate, suddenly putting the question on the La Follette amendment to eliminate the labor provisions of the treaty. There were some "ayes" and a chorus of "noes." Senator La Follette objected that several senators still wanted to speak, and Senator Sherman, republican, Illinois, launched into another bitter attack on the treaty.

It turned out that so many senators wanted to talk that leaders virtually abandoned hope of a vote on the amendment today.

Sherman Hits Conference

Senator Sherman, republican, Illinois, launched an attack on the International Labor Conference in the senate today. He said the conference contained "a number of socialists and also a number of those who go beyond socialism—radicals, alien fire-brands—but a degree removed from those who believe soviet principles."
Germany has delegates in the conference who are here to "promote industrial mischief," Senator Sherman said, "while Japan has delegates planning inroads on American industry."
Senator Sherman predicted that the conference would declare against the American "open shop" and subject the United States to economic boycott if the conference decree was not observed.

SENATE COMMITTEE IN TILT WITH SEC. BAKER

Sen. Chamberlain Asks Concerning "Discipline" of Officers.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Nov. 4.—Secretary Baker and Senator Chamberlain, democrat, Oregon, former chairman of the senate military committee, clashed sharply today at a hearing of a sub-committee dealing with the military justice controversy.

"Whenever an inferior officer gets into a disagreement with his superior, he is likely to get the axe very suddenly," Senator Chamberlain declared.

"That isn't a fact," Secretary Baker said.
"But I say it is," Senator Chamberlain responded. "We know it up here."
"Oh, of course," Mr. Baker said, "when an officer comes up to congressional committees and says things that are independent of department views, you class anything that happens to him after as punitive punishment."

"Take your own actions," said Senator Chamberlain. "What did you do to Gen. Kenly for his aircraft statements up here?"

"He was not disciplined," Secretary Baker returned.
"No, you don't call it discipline," Senator Chamberlain remarked.

"What happened to Ansell? (Former acting judge advocate general.) You put him in a place of innocuous desuetude, and reduced him in rank."
"I did that," Mr. Baker replied. "He was not only disagreeing with his superior, he was slandering him."

"Yes, and what became of Adjutant General McCain, when he thought his office ought not to go under the general staff?" asked Senator Chamberlain.
"I gave him the opportunity to command a division in the field, the heart's desire of every soldier," Mr. Baker said.

"Yes, but did he ask to be relieved?" Senator Chamberlain persisted.
"He'd never had anything but office experience. I confess that I did not know his military record," Mr. Baker said. "I thought he had commanded troops."

Senator Chamberlain named other officers of lower rank and the secretary conceded that some of them had been demoted and transferred.

When a man can't get along with his chief he ought to get out of the service," the secretary concluded, "unless his chief is wrong, and then you ought to change the chief."

France Offers U. S. New Proposal for Fiume Settlement

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Paris, Nov. 4.—(Havas).—France has taken the initiative in presenting to the Washington government a new proposal for settlement of the Fiume question, according to the Echo de Paris. The newspaper says the move has the support of Great Britain.

WASHINGTON UNIFORMED

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Nov. 4.—No new proposal for the settlement of the Fiume question has reached the American government either from France or Great Britain, it was said today at the state department. Further than this statement officials would not discuss the question.

WILL DISCUSS PLEBISCITE IN GERMAN AREAS

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Paris, Nov. 4.—The supreme council has fixed Nov. 10 as the date when the plebiscite commission created under the German peace treaty shall meet in Paris to discuss the elections in the various areas, the political affiliation of which is to be settled by popular vote. The United States will not be represented even unofficially at this meeting.

Holland has been advised by the council that it adheres to the decision previously reached not to recognize the Dutch ownership of German ships purchased by Holland after the opening of the war.

Belgium has asked the council to release ships from Finland loaded with material destined for Belgium. The question has been referred to the armistice commission which it is expected will allow these ships to pass through the Baltic blockade of soviet Russia.

FUNERAL TODAY FOR FORMER DIXON MAN

The body of the late George H. Robinson, a former resident of Dixon, arrived this afternoon from Rockford and was taken to Oakwood cemetery where funeral services were conducted by the Dixon lodge of Odd Fellows of which he was a member. Mr. Robinson was killed last Friday at Little Rock, Ark., when a train struck an automobile in which he was riding. The remains were sent to his home in Rockford where funeral services were conducted this morning. Mr. Robinson was a traveling salesman for the Valentine Varnish Co. of Chicago.

P. P. Ledy returned to his home in Fort Dodge, Ia., Monday after a week's visit with his niece, Mrs. D. J. Lightner.

GARFIELD HOLDS CONFERENCE TODAY IN EFFORT TO SECURE BASIS FOR COAL SETTLEMENT

Lewis, Head of Miners, Says Negotiation Is Still Possible—Unions Claim All Their Men Are Holding Firm and That Mines Are Closed.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Indianapolis, Ind., Nov. 4.—Breaking his silence here for the first time since he was served with the restraining order from the court of Federal Judge A. B. Anderson last Friday, John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America, gave out the following brief statement in regard to government efforts to end the strike of approximately 425,000 soft coal miners:

"The machinery of the joint system of bargaining in the mining industry is intact. It would be a simple matter for the government and the coal operators again to set in motion to negotiate a wage agreement."

The statement was given to press representatives, following a conference Mr. Lewis had with his attorney, which lasted practically all morning. The miners' leader said he had nothing to add to the typewritten statement, and none of the other officials made any comment.

Reports from the Indiana coal district today indicate there has been no break in the ranks of union miners, the coal operators, it is said, agreeing that not a single railroad mine in the district is in operation. No violence has been reported.

DELAY STATE MEETING.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Springfield, Ill., Nov. 4.—Indefinite postponement of the Illinois district mine workers' convention, to have been held at Peoria beginning Nov. 11, by action of the district executive board in session here, was announced today by Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois Miners' organization. "The unsettled condition" of affairs national was assigned as the reason for the action.

In making public the decision to postpone the state convention, Farrington declared the "federal injunction has no part in influencing the board." A large part of the work of the district convention, he stated, was formulation of an Illinois commission which would take on the aspect of an impossibility without a basic agreement for the central competitive field.

"It would be impracticable to convene the district convention on account of the indefinite condition of affairs generally," Farrington said.

Sessions of the district executive board continued today, but officials declined to discuss the nature of the business except to say it was "routine."

All Workers Idle.

President Farrington said reports indicated that every man worker in Illinois was idle and would remain so until "their demands were met."

Explaining what he said was a misapprehension, Farrington, who is chairman of the miners' international scale committee, declared the demands of the union did not include a provision for five full days work a week or in other words a minimum of five days a week.

Miners Demands.

"What the miners are demanding," he stated, "is that the week be restricted to five working days. This does not necessarily mean that there would always be work five days a week, but it does mean that under the agreement work would be limited to five days a week."

Farrington referred to the proposed strike settlement plan of A. L. Faulkner, a member of the federal commission of conciliation, announced at Cleveland yesterday, as unacceptable. Faulkner's proposal provided for the withdrawal of the strike injunction and the return of the miners to work under guarantee of wage increases of 15 or 20 per cent effective Nov. 1, the issues to be submitted to a board of arbitration. Under the proposal operators would be permitted to add the increased wage cost to the war-time fixed price of coal.

"The increases suggested by Mr. Faulkner would not be sufficient to accommodate the situation," said Farrington, "and we do not care to submit our grievances to a body of inexperienced men who know nothing about the issues involved."

Farrington said the reported return of men to work in "non-union fields of West Virginia" had no bearing on the general situation. He said the tie-up in non-union and sparsely organized fields had been "more effective than we expected."

Comiskey Would Have Umpire See Ball Often

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Nov. 4.—In the campaign to abolish freak pitching from the Major Leagues, Charles A. Comiskey, president of the Chicago Americans, today advocated an examination of the ball by the umpire after every third or fifth pitch. That would eliminate much delay caused by opposing players demanding to see the ball, he said, and also the "booming" by patrons that generally follows such interruptions of play.

FAVOLA SENTENCED.

Joe Favola, Mexican, pleaded guilty to a charge of assault with a deadly weapon before Judge John B. Crabtree in the county court this afternoon and was sentenced to serve 30 days in the county jail. Favola was arrested last week after he had attacked Maliton Fortize, a fellow Mexican with a butcher knife.

By Associated Press Leased Wire

Washington, Nov. 4.—Efforts to reach a basis for possible settlement of the strike of bituminous miners were made today at a conference here between Federal Fuel Administrator Garfield and J. D. A. Morrow, president of the National Coal Association, an organization of the leading coal operators of the country.

Dr. Garfield returned early today from a visit to Kentucky and soon afterwards went into conference with Mr. Morrow, who was an official of the fuel administration during the war. What proposals the fuel administrator had to make were not disclosed in advance of the conference.

Attorney General Palmer was out of the city today, but other officials in touch with the situation were more hopeful than ever that there would be a speedy ending of the strike.

Officials Encouraged.

The statement of John L. Lewis, acting president of the United Mine Workers of America, that the joint system of bargaining in the mining industry still was intact was regarded as another encouraging sign. Officials reiterated, however, that the strike would have to be called off before the government could offer its good offices to arbitrate the differences between the miners and operators.

Meantime various government agencies went ahead with plans to protect the public and industry from a coal shortage as far as that was possible with the supply of fuel at hand.

Fuel Administrator Garfield is expected soon to ask President Wilson's authority to revive certain old fuel administration orders, particularly those relating to anthracite coal, so as to be prepared to deal with any attempt at price-fixing.

PROPOSE ARBITRATION.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Nov. 4.—A special presidential commission to attempt arbitration of the bituminous coal strike was proposed in a resolution introduced today by Chairman Kenyon, of the labor committee. Without discussion the measure was referred to that committee.

The resolution provides that the commission be composed of three members who should call together representatives of the miners and operators of such mines, and use all lawful means to cause them to consider and settle their differences.

Should such differences not be adjusted or the strike terminated within fifty days the commission would investigate the controversy and within 15 days publish a report setting forth the results of its investigation and its conclusions as to the proper concessions, if any to be made by one or both sides.

STRIKE FUNDS BIG FACTOR.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Nov. 4.—Developments today were looked forward to here as likely to afford an index to the duration of the coal strike. A spirit of hopefulness that the end of the strike was near was prevalent.

Government officials were of the opinion that the broad powers of the federal labor injunction in shutting off the strike funds would force the miners to return to work and bring the strike to a close. Labor leaders themselves were said to hold the view that the miners could not hold out long for lack of subsistence caused by the operation of the injunction.

Youngstown Women in Riots Today

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Youngstown, O., Nov. 4.—Bricks and stones flew while deputy sheriffs fought with a crowd of 150 enraged women this morning who attempted to prevent workers from entering the Youngstown Sheet & Tube Co. plant here.

Five men and four women were arrested, charged with rioting. No one was seriously injured.

Shots were fired into the Ohio works of the Carnegie Steel Co. plant this morning and mill guards returned the fire. No casualties were reported.

The Brier Hill Steel Co., reported the opening of another open hearth furnace today while all the mills gave out statements of men returning to work in greatly increased numbers.

WITHDRAW GARY PICKETS.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Nov. 4.—Union pickets were withdrawn from the steel plants of Gary and Indiana Harbor, Ind., today for the first time since the start of the steel strike six weeks ago. Workers entered the great steel plants unmolested.

Col. W. S. Mapes, commander of the troops in Gary, is investigating letters he obtained urging the strikers to "lay low" until the troops are recalled. He said the withdrawal of the pickets probably was in line with this policy.

DIXON SHOULD TAKE ADVICE OF LINCOLN HIGHWAY OFFICIALS

Suggest Marking of Historic Points Along the "Back- bone Route."

The Lincoln Highway Forum, in its most recent issue, suggests the marking of historic points of interest along the routes of tourists travel. This suggestion should find ready response in Dixon, where there are spots of such great historic value and interest. Dixon has a site that is more closely connected with Abraham Lincoln than any other spot on the entire transcontinental highway named for him. At the north end of the Galena Avenue bridge there once stood a log fort, known as the old block-house where Lincoln, as a lad, was first sworn into the service of the United States when he enlisted with the government troops to fight the Indians in the Black Hawk War.

Milestones Suggested
The Lincoln Highway Forum says—
Now that Americans ramble the country over in their motor cars, exploring the ancient trails and historic roads of the nation's past, organizations of patriotic citizens, and in many instances the states or the Federal Government itself are taking pains to mark for the enlightenment of the travelers of the future the historic points along the trails of the pioneers and on the roads which played so great a part in the molding of American history.

The old emigrant trails of the West are now being marked with signposts prepared by the forest rangers so that the hiker who rides the boulevards of the future may mark the spots where stirring events of yesterday occurred.

Fifty or one hundred years from now the historic significance of the first transcontinental army convoy run which started from Washington July 7th and ended in San Francisco on September 6th will probably be even more thoroughly appreciated than it is now. It is not proposed to wait for the future to mark the progress of this historic run over the Lincoln Way.

Before the convoy left Washington "Zero" milestone marking its start by the Secretary of War House. This stone was but a replica of the permanent one which will be unveiled by President Wilson later this year or next spring, a stone which will stand forever marking the opening of a new epoch of highway transportation in this country.

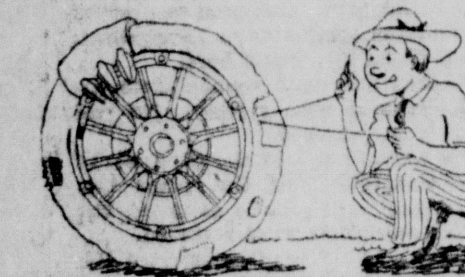

At the completion of the convoy run a duplicate of the zero milestone, but inscribed with the distance between zero stone in Washington and the "End of the Trail" in Lincoln Park, San Francisco, 3110 miles was dedicated during the ceremonies held on the Lincoln Highway Sept. 6. This stone will also be replaced by a permanent one at the base of the flagstaff and monument marking the end of the Lincoln Way.

It is now suggested that additional stones bearing the accurate distance over the first transcontinental military highway be erected at various points along the Lincoln Way by the communities through which the motor convoy passed.

In a letter to A. F. Remont, Vice President and Secretary of the Lincoln Highway Association, Lieut. Col. Chas. W. McClure, Expeditionary Commander of the first transcontinental motor convoy writes following the completion of the run in San Francisco: "It has been proposed that the Lincoln Highway Association promote the establishment of each city, town and village through which the first transcontinental army convoy passed, an appropriate marker indicating the mileage from the zero marker and the date and time of the convoy's passage. The passage of the convoy was invariably considered an important event in the municipality traversed, and it would seem that such a marker would not only serve to visibly record the event, but also to assist in the great propaganda which your organization is carrying on for better highways."

HARMON

The Midland Lyceum Bureau will present Esther and Clayton, artists in crayon and in sand, as the first number of the Harmon lecture course, on November 12, at the Methodist church in Harmon. Clayton H. Staples has no peer in his art. From his own brain and heart he originates his miracles in colored crayon and introduces colored sand. He illustrates poems and legends.

It may have a blow out or a rim cut, it may be ragged and tread worn; if the fabric is sound, skillful repairing will make it good for many a mile.

When shall we call for it?

How the Experience of Years Saves Money in This Post-War Maxwell

THE run of 300,000 Maxwells to date saves you many a worth while dollar in the new Post-War Maxwell. Those 300,000 saved in many ways.

More miles per gallon
More miles on tires

1. They taught "short cuts" in manufacturing.
2. They eliminated all experimental work—you don't have to pay for a single engineering mistake.
3. They developed quantity production which has reduced "overhead."
4. They enabled quantity purchases; and better materials are bought at lower costs.
5. They taught how to build an almost trouble-proof car; you seldom take a Post-War Maxwell to a repair shop.

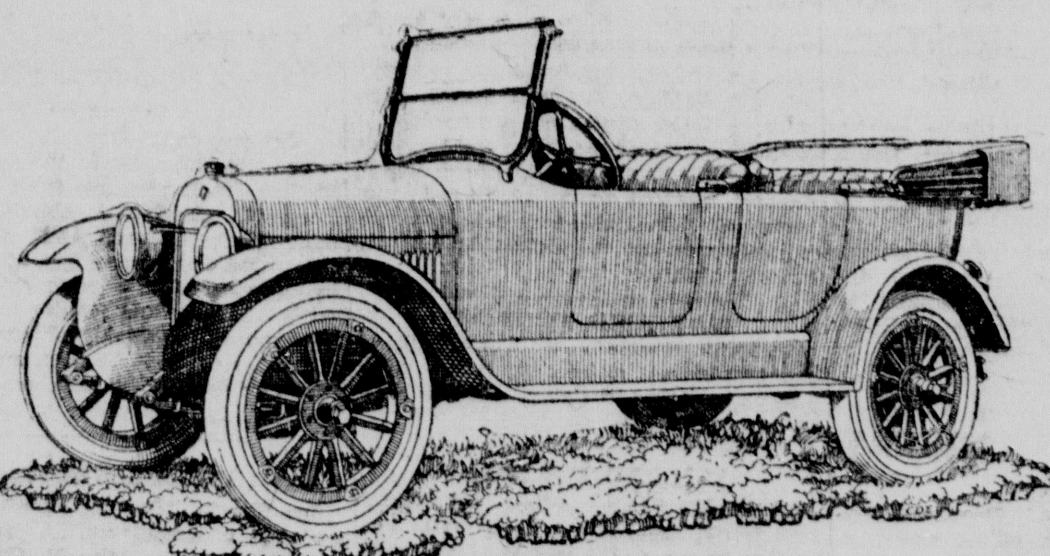

6. They taught how to get the most mileage out of a gallon of gasoline, a pint of oil and a set of tires.
7. They taught how to build a car that the less skilled driver would find simple to operate and take care of.

8. They taught that it was better to build more and take less profit per car rather than build less and take more profit per car.
9. They taught how to put more and more value in the car without increasing its cost.

This Post-War Maxwell is next year's car. It contains features developed during the war, many of which will find their way into other cars in the summer of 1920.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION—

The annual Sunday school convention of the association of South Dixon and Marion township was held at the St. James church Sunday afternoon and evening. Two very interesting sessions, largely attended by Dixon and Nachusa people as well as from the two townships, South Dixon and Marion, were held. Rev. Ernest C. Lumsden, pastor of the Methodist church of Dixon, was the principal speaker of the afternoon. After a few general remarks on Sunday school work he gave an inspiring address on "Christ, the Master Teacher." Reports and routine business, with the election of officers for the year otherwise occupied the afternoon session. The former officers, including Mrs. Martha Shippert, president; A. W. Hartman, vice president, and Miss Nellie Welsh, secretary-treasurer, were re-elected. Rev. Joseph Burrows, of the Amboy Methodist church, who was to have given the second address of the afternoon, was unable to be present. In the evening Miss Ethel Kay, county Sunday school worker, and Rev. J. H. Johnson, pastor of the South Dixon Evangelical churches, gave the address, the former speaking on "The Touch of the Teacher" and the latter on "Promotion of Attendance." Both were highly interesting. Special music added greatly to the program of both sessions.

All-on-One-Floor Heating $107

Reduces living costs for the small home!

Where two or more families occupy a building and there is no janitor service available, this arrangement of separate heating outfits (consisting of an IDEAL-Arcola Boiler with a few AMERICAN Radiators connected thereto) offers a fine solution. Each tenant easily takes care of his simple heating outfit on his own floor without going to the cellar (if there is a cellar) to attend to the fire. Each tenant controls the heat to suit his own needs. The piping is ordinarily run out of sight between walls or under floors.

New IDEAL-Arcola Radiator-Boiler

Puts IDEAL Hot Water Heating comfort at low cost in "deckers" or flats, bungalows, stores and shops, with or without cellars

Even the $15 a month tenant would be glad to pay $1.50 a month extra for this IDEAL Hot Water Heating, as it would save the tenant investing six times that amount in a short-lived stove with its one-room "spotty" heating. Does away with the annual blacking, taking down and storing of stoves. And the $1.50 a month increased rental is good interest to the building owner and secures him a better satisfied, longer-staying tenant. The IDEAL-Arcola is therefore an investment, not an expense—as it will outwear the building itself.

Investigate at once this IDEAL Heating bargain!

Each tenant controls the exact degree of warmth his family prefers or needs—makes his own indoor climate! The IDEAL-Arcola requires no cellar. Same water is circulated over and over for many years! There is no danger to children or fire risk to building, as the iron surfaces do not get red-hot like a stove, nor can the Arcola be overturned or a leg kicked out. Stops all coal-waste—thus bringing heating costs down to lowest notch.

Greatest comfort, cleanest heating, saves work and worry, protects family health, saves doctor bills and repair bills. The coal-saving soon repays original cost. Put quickly into OLD or new buildings. Phone your local dealer today.

Catalog showing open views of houses, individual flats, stores, offices, etc., with the IDEAL-Arcola Boiler in position will be mailed (free). Write today

A RULE OF NATURE

"Ship, Rudderless, Sends Call for Help."—Newspaper Headline.

While mail is unprotected, Nature is conscientious and provides defenses.
But the moment man himself devises his own protection, the jade quits her responsibilities with almost indecent slavery.

The human skin, for example, originally could stand extremes of heat and cold. Clothing was invented. Today the civilized mortal must have clothes or perish. Nature has turned over one of her jobs to man himself.

And then there is this matter of rud-derless ships. In the days before the wireless no man could get an officer's billet unless he knew how to rig up a contrivance to steer a ship when the regular steering apparatus was lost in a storm or collision. It was a trick calling for smart seamanship. One Captain Rice, famous in the annals of Pacific shipping, sailed a rudderless ship right up to the mouth of a harbor, dickered for towage and then taunted the tugboat master with his loss of fat salvage.
The records are silent as to what this skipper said, but no doubt it raised the temperature thereabouts.

The wireless has come in. Help may be obtained by the simple business of asking for it. The need of resourceful seamanship is gone. So Nature drops that part of her schooling. The time is at hand probably when men who go down to the sea in ships will not have to study weather signs; warnings will come from all the leagues about by wireless—rigging jury masts can be disposed with a mast can be ordered by wireless—steaming a twin-screw steamer with one propeller will be a lost art;
you send for a repairman by wireless and spend the time fishing.

Many a man has thought he could get along without a God—and God has let him go his way all on his own. But always there is the plain sign and advertisement of something lost.

PRESBYTERIAN NOTES.
This evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Raymond, North Dement avenue, the Women's Auxiliary will enertain the gentlemen husbands and friends of the members of the society.

Wednesday evening in the church the regular prayer meeting. Topic for discussion, "Giving." Are we benefactors or patronizers when we give?

Thursday evening at the church D.
E. Raymond's class will have a get-together supper. Let every man report at 6:30.

Friday in the Presbyterian church of Sterling there will be a Presbyterian
New Era Institute, for all the Presbyterian churches in this section. A fine program is arranged and speakers of national reputation will be heard. It is hoped that a large delegation will go from Dixon.

Saturday evening the choir will meet at the church.

Sunday at the services the pastor took occasion to recommend the defeat of the first two propositions voted on at the election today.

At the call of the leaders of the Presbyterian church, Monday was observed as a day of prayer for America, that the mightiest force in command of Christians might be used to correct the social and industrial disturbances of the time.

The four Chicago gunmen run down by a posse of farmers and rural police in a woods near Kaneville several weeks ago, will be placed on trial at Sycamore next Monday. All four have been indicted on several counts charging burglary, attempted burglary and having burglar tools in their possession. The four are Joe Wheeler, 75 years old; John E. Trainor, Frank Kreuger and Harold Toomey.

It was after they had broken into the Frederic & Dolder garage that the four bandits, alleged to be the men now in the Sycamore jail, were chased all the way to Kaneville, where they were trapped while ordering gasoline for their automobile. They fled into a woods where they were surrounded by farmers armed with shot guns. After an exchange of shots in which all four of the bandits were hit, the fugitives were captured.

PRE-NUPTIAL DINNER PARTY—

Mrs. Charles Duis entertained Monday evening with a pre-nuptial dinner party for Miss Alice McCoy, whose wedding to Bert Buhler, of Sterling, takes place soon. Covers were laid for twelve at the dinner, the decorations for which were in yellow and white.
Festoons in the chosen colors obscured the ceiling and the dome above the table. In the center of the table yellow chrysanthemums, ferns, and oak leaves were arranged in a French ivory basket, which was surrounded by a wreath of the gold oak leaves. The nut cups simulated chrysanthemums and a corsage bouquet of these flowers, the tiny variety, tied with yellow ribbon, was at each place, given as a favor.

After the several course dinner, Victrola music, singing, and dancing were enjoyed. At the close of the evening the guests presented Miss McCoy with a handsome hand-painted fruit picture.
The guests were, besides the guest of honor, the Misses Elenora Fuestman, Katherine Fuestman, Irene Young, Agnes Tague, Margaret McCoy, Margaret O'Donnell, and Minnie Johnson, and the Mesdames Ruby Hatzel, Edward Blackburn and Frank Foreman.

new pastor of the church, Mrs. Waggoner, and their family. The affair was a most delightful one and largely attended by the members and friends of the church. Chrysanthemums and ferns were used in the decorations of the rooms thrown open for the affair.
Miss Nesbit, violinist, and Clinton Fahney, pianist, together with an orchestra, furnished music during the evening, and refreshments were served with Miss Cox in charge of the dining room, where candles were used in the

PARIS SHIVERS.

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Paris, Nov. 4.—(Havas.)—The coal shortage has become more critical within the last few days on account of the snow and intense cold. The newspapers ployed by local retail coal dealers were coal were exhausted. With the railroad administration holding all cars on track and distribution limited the dealers had nothing for their men to do. With the county's supply of coal only sufficient to last another day, Sheriff Lewis Haines announced this morning that he proposed, if necessary, to seize coal any-

RECOVERED FURS

Miss Edith Patterson, of Sterling, woman walking on the streets of that city wearing a coat which she identified as having been stolen from her home two years ago, yesterday recovered the in Justice Weaver's court. There was no parleying. Charles Modler, husband of the woman on whom Miss Patterson had seen her coat, had the coat and a set of furs, which Miss Patterson also claimed, in court and they were

What This Store Calls Value in Men's Clothing

Two men make an investment. One buys a "sure thing," the other a gilt-edge security. The stock certificates look about alike but there's something back of one, nothing back of the other.

It is much the same with clothes. Words describe two suits almost alike.
There's wear back of one. Plain, downright disappointment back of the other.

Time-honored specifications have brought clothing to this Men's Store this season of the same qualities which have assured absolutely satisfactory service in the past. We met the higher costs. We never changed these specifications.

The value is in the service these suits and overcoats for men and young men will give—is giving right now. There is no value in buying clothes at the prices paid a few years ago, or even last year, for no one can get the qualities that should be there at less than the prices asked by this Men's Store now. If these qualities could be procured for less we would have them for less—but we will never have less in quality than will make real downright value, no matter what the price.

Men's and young men's suits for fall and winter from $25 to $65. Men's and young men's overcoats for fall and winter from $18 to $65.

"Ripe" Eggs Make Cost to Consumer Greater

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Nov. 4.—Executive officers of the National Poultry, Butter and Egg Association, representing more than 1,200 produce dealers throughout the east and middle west, today were pledged to help lower prices to the consumer. Elimination of the vast waste of breaking and "ripening," it was stated at the meeting here last night, will enable the wholesale men materially to reduce prices.

Standardization of shipping methods also will permit dealers to cut down their overhead and loss by deterioration and reduce the cost to the consumer.

"We also aim to speed up transportation between producer and consumer so that the buyer will be more directly affected by daily fluctuations," said H. P. Jones, of Chicago, executive secretary.

CATHOLICS PRAYED FOR DEPARTED ONES

The people of Catholic faith in Dixon and throughout the world filled their churches yesterday—the day of commemoration of All Souls. It was the day on which the relatives and friends knelt in silent prayer for the deliverance from purgatory of the souls of those who have passed away, and special masses were read in all churches.

The Catholic church teaches that there are few who died whose lives have been so free from sin that their souls ascend immediately into heaven. There is a place—purgatory—between heaven and hell where the soul is cleansed of all venial sin before it finally ascends to heaven and eternal happiness, the church teaches. All Souls day is set aside by the Catholic church as the day on which all people of the faith pray for deliverance of those whose souls are in purgatory.

Robert Herbst of Nachusa transacted business in Dixon Saturday.

The condition developed through passage of a law that no man convicted of robbery by a pistol should be admitted to the Pontiac prison. The Joliet prison and Chicago City prisons also refused him admission.

Newspapers Facing Disaster Because of Paper Condition

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Nov. 4.—Small daily and weekly newspapers are threatened with destruction because of inability to obtain print paper, the house was told yesterday by Representative Reavis, republican, Nebraska. He charged that news print manufacturers were refusing to sell small publishers in order to fill the wants of the metropolitan dailies.

Paper consumption by the big city dailies and magazines has been greatly increased, Mr. Reavis said, by an "extensive national advertising campaign conducted to defeat the government in collecting taxes." He urged that the internal revenue bureau investigate the returns of concerns conducting the campaign to disclose to what extent their excess profits tax was reduced by the costs of the advertising.

Alleged Leader of Swindlers Surrenders

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Nov. 3.—John Henry Strosnider, alleged leader of a band of confidence men, recently implicated in a $10,000 stock swindle, and who had his headquarters in Atlanta, Ga., gave himself up to Chief Rooney this morning, Arthur Mitchell, a Chicago broker, one of the victims alleged that he was swindled out of $10,000, the deal being arranged in Atlanta. Strosnider's operations are said to have netted him nearly half a million dollars. He was recently paroled from Joliet, where he had been for operating a confidence game.

SANDRA THE JEALOUS

By JANE PHELPS.

"DOES IT PLEASE YOU, SANDRA, THEN I AM SATISFIED."

CHAPTER CXVI

"I could scarcely restrain my impatience. But I knew teasing would do no good, so tried to chat with my visitor while simply burning up with curiosity. Mrs. Gray and the servants seemed glad to see us, and after I had greeted them, Everett said:

"I will take Mrs. Graham to her room, Mrs. Gray," so I, wondering at the unusual attention, followed my husband upstairs.

"Oh, Everett, how lovely!" While I had been away he had done my room all over, and had a door made between it and another room which, he explained, was for Junior.

"When he gets a little older we will want him near us, so as I had the workmen here I thought I might as well have it done now. Then he took my arm and escorted me downstairs. In the drawing room, which also had been redecorated, was a perfectly lovely new baby grand piano, and some other articles of furniture.

"Wait," he said, as I was about to try the piano, "I have something else to show you."

"What, more?" I exclaimed linking my arm in his. "A fairy has been at work."

He led me into the library without replying. The room had been entirely renovated. New bookcases which he had long said he needed, lined the sides of the room, while above them were a few good paintings, nothing else. All the pictures had been replaced by the paintings. For a moment I looked around scarcely realizing what made the room so strange. Then it dawned upon me: Leola's picture was gone!

Tears rushed to my eyes as I saw. Then I turned to Everett. "Thank you dear—it is all lovely."

"I think he understood, for he bent and kissed me and said:

"If it makes you happy, I am content."

Then we went into dinner. Everett was very gay, for him, but I could scarcely follow his sallies, so intent was my mind upon what he had done. All the rest was as nothing to the banishment of that hated picture. How thankful I was I had not asked him again to remove it after baby came — as I had been tempted to. He had done it now of his own free will, and because he thought it would make me happier.

I never had loved my husband as I did at that thought. For I was sure he still loved Leola, better than he ever had loved me. Yet he had put away her picture so that I might be happy.

After dinner I tried the piano while he smoked. It had a lovely tone and when he expressed the hope that I would now practice more I readily promised to do so.

It seemed there was no end to my surprises. After a bit he said:

"Sandra, I think we should do something with those clothes of Leola's in the attic. He spoke her name naturally, something he never had done before. "It seems a shame to have them up there, when they might do someone good."

"What would you like done with them?" I asked, scarcely believing I had heard aright.

"Of course you couldn't wear them, and just as of course they aren't suitable for the servants. Haven't you some young friends who could take them. Make them over, and so get some good from them? Or would you rather give them to some charitable organization and let them sell them?"

"No, that would be too cruel to sell those lovely things. But I know two girls out home, the Norcross twins, they used to have money and still go in the very best society, and are lovely girls. But they are poor as church mice. They both saw beautifully so if you don't mind I will send the things to them."

"Do so. Here are the keys. Look everything over carefully to see if there are any papers, destroy them," then he changed the subject.

As I laid the keys away until morning, I wondered what could have happened while I was away to make Everett do all he had done. But it wasn't the new piano, nor my lovely room I had in my thoughts; it was the disappearance of Leola's picture and his request that I dispose of her clothes.

Pimples, skin and sallow complexion vanish after a few cups, and the little tots just love it and should always have it, especially when out of sorts and feverish.

IT'S different from others because more care is taken in the making and the materials used are of higher grade.

Reaction in Corn is Result of Big Advance

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Chicago, Nov. 4.—Corn swung downward in price today as a result of general selling based on opinions that a reaction was due after an advance of 10 cents within 48 hours. Lack of aggressive buying was a feature. No real support for prices developed until after the market underwent a decided setback. Opening quotations, which ranged from 1/2 to 1 1/2 lower with December 1.35 1/2 to 1.37 1/2 and May 1.29 1/2 to 1.30 1/2, were followed by a slight further decline in some cases.

Oats weakened with corn. After opening 1/2 off to a like advance, including December at 73 1/2 to 75 1/2, the market sagged all around. Lower prices on hogs and grain carried provisions downgraded. Meats were relatively more affected than lard.

Later the scarcity of corn available for immediate delivery brought about a sharp rally, especially in the nearer-by options. Closing prices were unsettled, 1/2 to 1c net lower, with December 1.36 1/2 to 1.38 1/2 and May 1.30 1/2 to 1.32 1/2.

Washington Interested in the Voting Today

By Associated Press Leased Wire
Washington, Nov. 4.—With several members of President Wilson's cabinet in their home towns today to cast their ballots, the cabinet did not hold its regular Tuesday meeting. It was expected to assemble later in the week, however, to discuss the coal strike and the appointment of a commission on industrial unrest.

For the first time since he has been in the White House, President Wilson was unable to go to his home in Princeton, N. J. to cast his ballot. Secretary Tumulty said the President was in "fine shape" this morning and would be permitted to receive the election returns "provided they are good."

The house of representatives was not in session, having recessed so members from states where elections were being held could return home. The senate, however, continued its discussion of the peace treaty.

MORE GOVT. GOODS RECEIVED IN DIXON

Approximately 5,000 pounds of government foodstuffs has been received and it being distributed today from the Dixon postoffice. This amount represents some of the orders that have been late in arriving. Some of the heavier articles were shipped from the Chicago supply depot by freight to this city, the others coming through by parcel post.

Postmaster Hogan announced this afternoon that there still remain some of the orders that will come by parcel post, but the bulk of the orders have been received and delivered. In some instances the supplies became exhausted before the orders from Dixon could be filled and in these cases refund checks are being sent to those who have been disappointed by not receiving their orders.
